A Usurper in the Executive Office—The Proof Furnished.

We are gratified to be able to give our readers the important information that Andrew Johnson is not a constitutional President of the United States. This information rests on an authority that ought to be deemed conclusive, inasmuch as it comes from a person who is now one of Johnson's most ardent supporters and constant admirers. Besides, this person is editor of the "official organ of the United States," and therefore we are not permitted to doubt the soundness of the arguments which he presented on this important subject some three years ago. Of course it will be understood that the authority to whom we refer is the "journeyman editor" who at present is doing the editorial writing for the Herald. In the San Francisco Democratic Press, of Sept. 16th, 1864, which paper bore at its head the name of "Beriah Brown, Editor," an article may be found which shows in the most conclusive manner that Andrew Johnson was not a constitutional candidate for the office of Vice President; and as this was the case, it follows irresistibly that his election to that office was not constitutional, and that his succession to the Presidency was alike in violation of our fundamental law. But not to prolong these introductory remarks, we hasten to cite just what this authority said on the important subject before us. After declaring that every vote cast for Fremont and Cochrane would be unconstitutional, because both were inhabitants of the same State, he proceeded to talk in this wise about the Baltimore candidates:

> The Convention at Baltimore went still further in repudiating the Constitution by nominating Andrew Johnson for Vice President; who, by the laws of Congress and the laws of war is an alien enemy, not a citizen of any State in the Union with a representation in Congress or a voice in the election of President. The legal qualifications of Jefferson Davis or General Lee for President or Vice President of the United States are precisely those of Andrew Johnson. The party making this latter nomination did not aim at a constitutional election of their candidate, but a seizure of the Government by usurpation. It matters not to them that Andrew Johnson is not a citizen of the United States nor entitled to vote in the election, if he can aid them in overriding the Constitution and obtaining power. It is another singular fact that three out of the four Abolition candidates are natives of Slave States—Fremont of South Carolina, Lincoln of Kentucky, and Johnson of North Carolina,—and all aliens and enemies to the States of their nativity.

Thus we have it established on a Democratic authority which boasts of its unimpeachability, that Andrew Johnson is not, in a constitutional sense, President of the United States. In 1864 he was an "alien" and an "enemy"; his election as Vice President was not a "constitutional election" but a part of a scheme to "seize the Government by usurpation"; consequently he is simply a "usurper" of the Presidential office, and it is the duty of the Democratic party to labor with might and main for his removal. This is the first step for them to take in re-establishing a constitutional Government. Therefore it is Beriah's duty to raise the cry of "Down with the usurper!" But at present the "journeyman editor" has other employments. He is talking of Johnson in terms of the warmest admiration; defending him as the constitutional President of the United States and uttering fearful threats about what he and his party will do in case any attempt is made to dislodge the "usurper!" How beautiful and consistent is "Democracy!"

Will Beriah inform his readers how a man who at the time of his election and inauguration, was "not a citizen of the United States," can have the qualifications necessary for a President or a Vice President of the United States?

A Point Admitted which has Heretofore been Denied.

> Whatever may be said of Mr. Johnson's personal or political character, it cannot be denied that the country owes to him a more lasting debt of gratitude than to any man now living. To fully appreciate this we have but to reflect what the country would now be with such a man as Ben. Wade, or such a man as the Radicals mistook Andrew Johnson for, in the Presidential chair.—Herald.

So it comes out, at last, by your own admission, that Andrew Johnson is not the man he was taken to be by those who elected him Vice President; that he has deceived his party, abandoned the principles he professed in 1864 and gone into the rebel-Democratic camp; that the "Radicals" supposed they were electing a man who would be true to them, to the country, and to his own word, but they have been wofully deceived; that those who saved the country elected him in the belief that he would carry out their wishes, but they "mistook their man." In other words, his perfidy to them and to the principles on which he was elected, has been as complete as it was unexpected; and the "Democracy" boast of his treachery and applaud the traitor. Yet the writer of the above extract has been proclaiming daily for two years past that there has been no change in Johnson, that he stands now just where he stood in 1864! Poor old Beriah cannot avoid exposing his own falsehoods and knavery. As Johnson, in his message, convicts himself of acts which would justify his immediate impeachment, so Beriah, in his leaders from day to day, confutes his own assertions and proves himself guilty of continual, systematic falsification.

BARK AND BITE.—Of Johnson's terrible threats against Congress, the New York Tribune says: "Threatened men live long, and Mr. Johnson's coup, like Dr. Cumming's Millenium, will no doubt prove a prophecy that can be pushed ahead and ahead as often as fulfillment is found to be inconvenient. The bloody banquet he promised Vallandigham and Seymour, Weed, and the rest of his bravoes—is no doubt a "moveable feast," and will be found a very feast of the Barmecides. The President is running about the White House grounds with a terrible pumpkin head, lighted by a very cheap tallow candle, and we misdoubt the American people are not to be scared by any such childish nonsense. Let us only look boldly at the bugaboo, and we shall find our great gorilla is after all nothing but a harmless and foolish monkey, with no talent, but to make himself a laughing stock to an idle world.

An Eastern Republican journal says the only plan of confiscation which it could possibly approve would be on the principle of retaliation, as follows:

> The land of the late masters might be distributed so as to give from an acre to an acre and a half or two acres to each freedman, while the sense and discretion of the freedmen should in some way, as compensation therefor, be confiscated, divided up and distributed around, so as to furnish from an ounce to an ounce and a half or two ounces of brains to each "Conservative."

Out of nineteen hundred volumes of Dickens' works in the Mercantile Library, New York, only two now remain. The natural inference would be that, despairing an opportunity of seeing the great author, people are consoling themselves for the disappointment by re-reading his works.

The Emperor of Austria is described as a man of thirty-eight, awkward and tall; he is a pure German blonde, blue eyes, light hair, heavy yellowish whiskers, and seems to be growing stouter. His face is mild and pleasant, though tinged with sadness. His manner is calm and slightly constrained.

"Religious Intelligence."

"COASTWISE.

"The Rev. M. B. Starr, late pastor of the South Park Congregational Church, sailed on the 6th inst. for his new field of labor, Saticoy, Santa Barbara county. Santa Clara Valley is fast settling up with an industrious and intelligent population. In a few years, the southern portion of the State may pour a tribute of trade and wealth into this city, equal to that of Oregon, Washington and Alaska, combined."

The above is from the Pacific, of Dec. 12th. If the statement is true we have not a word to say; but if it is false, who is responsible for such "religious intelligence," so utterly unfair and belittling to the State of Oregon, and the Territories of Washington and Alaska. Are the editors of that paper so narrow-minded and so ignorant as to believe that one-half of the State of California, or rather one valley in it, is to furnish more "wealth" and "trade" to their city than the three countries named? I submit that these countries would do well to consider such insinuations in the public prints of California, and look for and to another and a more liberal market to which they can give their patronage, and from which they can receive their supplies, without paying a tax of three dollars per ton on all the goods they receive, for being landed and re-shipped from San Francisco, and the same for all sent through her ports to foreign markets, besides profits on all goods sold in her market, and save the narrow-minded editors of her public journals the necessity of giving these countries so many stabs under the fifth rib.

If I mistake not, the writer of that item is one of the editors of the Pacific who has traveled extensively in Washington Territory and Oregon, and ought to have known better as to the present and future prospects of those portions of the country. Oregon has already furnished over half the bread that has fed the people of California, and two-thirds of all their lumber has come from Oregon and Washington Territory. The Northern coast now furnishes a large part of the gold California claims as her own; yet invariably her public journals have been too mean to give us our just credit.

This "Religious Intelligence" is all well enough when it gives the truth respecting a particular country, or section of country, but when it belittles three countries to praise up one, it shows not charity; but that the fountain is supremely selfish—if not wofully ignorant. Oregon, Washington and Alaska have always been, and are today, more independent of California than California is, or has been, of either of these countries; and all of them, will receive and retain that portion of substantial, which is who make a permanent and prosperous people.

We admit that California or San Francisco now controls the trade of this coast, but we doubt if she is competent to always do it; for the simple reason that she does not and cannot produce the staples of commerce. The luxuries she may and does produce, but the lumber, corn and iron must be produced elsewhere,—her gold and luxuries must be exchanged for the substantials. She has a speculating and per consequence a fluctuating and unstable people. Another point upon this coast, in the vicinity of Puget Sound, would check if it did not destroy her present pride and boasting—and such is as sure to come as there are Northern men and Northern energy in existence. No envy, or boasting, or malice can prevent it.

A PIONEER OF THIS COAST.
Astoria, December 22, 1867.

[From the Olympia Transcript.]

The Great Freshet.

The freshet of the past week has been unparalleled since the settlement of the Territory, and caused a large destruction of property, but fortunately no lives have been lost so far as yet heard. For a few days we had heavy rains, yet not heavier than often experienced, but the warm winds caused the snow on the hills and mountains to melt very rapidly, which immediately swell all the streams having their source in the mountains to overflowing. Those whose tributaries were not so high, did not rise higher than other freshets we have seen, such as the Des Chutes, Skokomish, and Chehalis. On these we have heard of no material damage. At one time it was feared that the bridges and upper mills at Tumwater would be washed away, but fortunately were but slightly if injured at all.

The Nisqually river was unusually high, and swept away the bridge on Saturday night. The whole bottom was several feet deep with water, and every bridge in the bottom carried away. Considerable damage was done in the loss of fences and stock, Mr. Shazer losing one hundred of fine sheep.

In the Puyallup valley, almost every farmer suffered some loss. Arthur Miller lost his house. J. P. Stewart lost a band of sheep, some hogs, and a horse. The grounds at the agency were completely submerged, the agents being driven out to high grounds.

On White river the destruction was horrible. In the upper settlement, Mr. Alvord lost some eight head of cattle and horses, and only saved a part of his stock by piling up hay, straw, and grain on the barn floor so as to keep the animals above the water, which rose seven or eight feet deep in the barn. Several families were driven from their homes. In the middle settlement Wm Cisco lost everything, only saving his family by making a raft of drift logs. P. Roberts lost all. His wife made her escape from drowning by crawling out of the chimney as the house went and remaining on the roof until rescued. Several others whose names we have not learned, lost all they had and barely escaped with their lives.

On Black river much damage was done. Edmund Carr succeeded in saving his stock and his family, but lost everything else. Mr. Smithers lost all his supplies for his family and stock, leaving him also destitute. Jos. Foster, member of the Assembly, lost two barns and a large amount of hay.

On Cedar river, Dutch Dave's house was carried off with him in it, but as it floated along Dave succeeded in getting out and on a large drift log, where he remained till morning, when the Indians rescued him. W. P. Smith, with his family, were in the upper part of the house, had been entirely surrounded by water for two days, the drift and current being so heavy that the Indians could not, through their best efforts, reach the house. The water was falling rapidly and Mr. Smith is probably safe.

On the Duwamish river the loss consists mainly in the damage to farms—carrying off fences, covering up the land with sand and rubbish, etc.

Humboldt Jack brings the news from Snohomish river that things were floating round loose generally.

Squauk was not destructively high, yet the water was up around Gov. Pickering's house so that he could not get out without wetting his feet, so he staid in-doors till the waters subsided.

Mr. L. A. Davis reports the bridge at Cinquato as totally destroyed by the flood. The dwelling house and stock of Wesley Gosnell, at the Old Cowlitz Landing, are also reported to be entirely swept away. The whole Cowlitz country is supposed to be "cleaned out." The Insane Asylum, farm houses, and Monticello itself gone.

The telegraph wires are down in every direction, and it will be some days probably before communication can be resumed. Parties of men have been out in each direction, repairing it.

From L. P. Beach we learn that the dam of Webster's mill on Skookum Chuck was carried away by the flood. Damage over two thousand dollars.

The English newspapers, though they criticise us severely, are not above taking advantage of of the good that is in our instructions. One of them lately, discussing the subject of national education, thought it would be well to adopt the free school system of America, as on the whole the most judicious, economical and effective, and altogether superior to that of England.

The Virginia Post reports that thirty-five men from Bozeman captured eleven horse thieves in the Yellowstone valley, returned the horses to the owners, and accounted for the thieves by saying that they had "gone to the States."

The hardest thing which has been said of any American politician was said by Sheridan of Governor Wells, of Louisiana, namely: "He has not a friend who is an honest man."

Amnesty to Rebels.

The following, relating to this subject, is from the testimony given by Gen. Grant before the Congressional Judiciary Committee

Q. Did you not advise the President that it was proper and right that he should grant amnesty?

A. I do not think I said anything on that subject; I only looked upon the proclamation as one which he was determined to issue, and as a thing susceptible to amendment or improvement.

Q. Did you not give your opinion at all that amnesty ought to be granted to these people to any extent?

A. I know that I was in favor of some proclamation of the sort, and perhaps I might have said so; it was necessary to do something to establish governments and civil law there; I wanted to see that done, but don't think I ever pretended to dictate what ought to be done.

Q. Did you not advise?

A. I don't think I ever did. I have given my opinion, perhaps as to what has been done, but do not think I advised any course myself. My [illegible] that I was very anxious to see something done to restore civil government in those States. I do not recollect having had any conversation on the subject of universal amnesty. I could not have recommended such a thing, because I never was in favor of it until the time [illegible] come when it is safe.

Q. You state that you differ from the President as to two points in the proclamation, but that his views afterward changed. State when the President's mind changed and underwent a change.

A. It would be very hard, I reckon, to fix it, but it was along in the summer of 1865, not more than two or three months after the North Carolina [illegible] of May 29th.

The Indian Question.

Astonishing as it may seem, it is nevertheless true that a sensible article on the "Indian Question" has actually appeared in the New York Tribune. Our readers are not to understand, however, that this article is published as an editorial;—the supposition that the Tribune's sentimental ideas had been so far "reconstructed" as to enable it to talk sensibly in its editorial columns on this subject, would be quite too violent an effort of the imagination. The article is a communication written at Union City, Montana Territory. It appears in the Daily Tribune of November 21st.; and a comparison of its statements and arguments with the delineations of Indian character which are given in Cooper's novels, Longfellow's poetic effusions, the addresses of the Society for Teaching Greek to Comanches and Blackfeet, and the editorials of quite a large class of Eastern papers, will show how wide a difference there is between the views and opinions of those who have learned something about Indians from experience, and of these visionaries and dreamers who spend so much of their time in the composition of eloquent essays on the "noble red man." This correspondent says that General Sherman has had 10,000 troops on the Plains since April last; that they are costing $500,000 a week; that no thoroughfare has been protected and no battle fought; that the best authorities compute that 5,000 settlers and emigrants have been butchered within the last year; that the people in this [illegible] situation are not Indian-speculators [illegible], but a mass of pioneers who are seeking homes, opening mines and gathering harvests; that they are the class who, of all men, most [illegible] peace with the savage, and that their heroism and sacrifices in opening the country to civilization are generally rewarded by gross misrepresentations and studied calumny. As this article is one of the ablest and most earnest we have [illegible], we cite some of its paragraphs:

I beg to impress this important and, to Western men, self-evident truth upon your readers and the national authorities: that there are no friendly Indians on the Plains! There has been no peace [illegible] the [illegible] of Colorado, although hostile [illegible] have not confederated to make war until recently. There is not a single nomadic tribe east of the [illegible] that does not, when opportunity is afforded, [illegible] with [illegible], steal and murder if [illegible]. The Utes, [illegible] the implacable foes of the Sioux and Cheyennes. They have no [illegible] of peace between their tribes, and they hate each other with a hatred more deadly than they can [illegible] for the whites. The so-called [illegible] are in [illegible], exterminating strife with the [illegible] at war with the [illegible]. There [illegible] in the mountains, or on the [illegible] until they were fought into subjection by the most relentless warfare. [illegible] at Fort Bridger is [illegible] but [illegible] than half his warriors slain in [illegible]. The [illegible] and Snakes were taught [illegible], leaving them only the [illegible] of peace or extermination. The [illegible] and [illegible] of Harney and Connor [illegible] tribes to bow to [illegible] Spotted Tail and [illegible], in the popular acceptation of the [illegible] but [illegible] must know, for [illegible] my authority for saying it, that [illegible] participated in the Fort Phil. [illegible]. No [illegible] is made [illegible] for the delivery of the savages who [illegible] too [illegible] to mention, the [illegible] from that ill-fated garrison. He was [illegible] with Gen. Sherman, and [illegible] powder and ball for those [illegible] the [illegible] army. Spotted-Tail may appear to [illegible] treaty, but who will be the Phil. [illegible] who have just been freshly supplied with [illegible] and ammunition by Gen. Sherman? [illegible] trunks or [illegible] will be [illegible] mute but eloquent monuments of this fatal folly? Gov. Smith of this [illegible] a few days ago that three [illegible] of Col. [illegible] in and [illegible] at Fort Benton, and bore [illegible] gifts straightway to the hostile [illegible]. [illegible] were sons of a chief who [illegible] with the whites. He does the part of diplomacy, while his sons and followers [illegible] by his tribe go to those who are on the war-path, and he divides the fraud and aids the [illegible].

It is the [illegible] of this writer, as indeed it must be plainly evident to all thinking people, that so long as the Indians live in any considerable [illegible] the whites will [illegible] an [illegible] foe. We quote again:

The Indian, in his [illegible] state, must be [illegible] at war with the white man, and one or the [illegible]. The time was when he [illegible] were not [illegible] upon by the march of civilization, and he met his rivals only on his borders to traffic with [illegible]. Now the surges of [illegible] break [illegible] from both the Atlantic and Pacific. Railroads are soon to unite the East and the West in iron bands. The miner and the [illegible] in almost every valley and gulch of the mountains, laying the foundations for future [illegible], and the Indian must conform to civilization or pass away before the inexorable logic of [illegible]. He will not civilize; must all civilization [illegible] in the heart of the continent? If so, the [illegible] of many Eastern journals, the last [illegible] that has marked our recent [illegible], and the [illegible] of the [illegible] whose richest profits are [illegible] with the blood of the pioneers, are leading the Government [illegible] wisely. If not, fresh graves will [illegible] the Plains, and prices will come only [illegible] and countless are [illegible].

To guard and improve the varied sources of [illegible], pioneers are streaming from the [illegible] and from the mountains. It is the progress of destiny, and no interest of the barbarian can arrest it. Our Government should soon learn what every day has been [illegible] with increased [illegible] each year, that with or without its aid, the [illegible] will reap golden harvests in that region, and pass over the graves of his fallen, but ever avenged, comrades, until he adds fresh stars to the galaxy of States. He will not found Empire upon wrong. It will be the well-earned triumph over wrong, over unyielding barbarism and [illegible] atrocity.

Do not misunderstand me as assuming that extermination is the only remedy. The Government, by its [illegible] folly, may make that the only remedy by making it the only safety of the settlers, but it should not be so. If Sherman commands on the plains, calls councils to threaten the savages in words they well know to be meaningless, and closes with the distribution of powder and ball, extermination will come. The army will not accomplish it by deeds of valor, but will be the chief agency in making it imperative.

The writer strongly urges the discontinuance of the present system of dealing with the Indians, and the adoption of a radically different policy. What he proposes is briefly summed up below:

The Government should [illegible] to propose councils or treaties with the Indians of the Plains. They believe that the Government fears them, and they have no respect for treaty obligations. They [illegible] at Generals but feel not their swords. They see armies marshaled against them in grand array, but they evade them until they can be murdered in detail. They violate treaties whenever want or revenge demands it, and have thus far, in this war, been well paid for every fresh atrocity. Why, therefore, should they observe faith? Why should they respect and fear the Government? For every Indian that has fallen they have scalped ten of Sherman's warriors, and a score of emigrants and settlers besides. The Government can have peace only by determining on its policy, and then firmly enforcing it. It must regard them as [illegible] its will—to be liberal and humane, as becomes a great Government and not as a treaty-making power, for the Indian is a barbarian and a stranger to the responsibilities imposed by treaties. The Government must determine—not propose—the solution of this vexed question, whose history is so fearfully stained with blood. They should be sent where civilization will not encroach upon them, and there let them be the recipients of any measure of Governmental beneficence. No [illegible] should be held with them, except to notify them of the purpose of the Government, and the period allowed for their removal. Let them understand that refusal will be war, and war in their own way, until there is submission. What I mean by war in their own way, is not a premium for "scalps with the ears on," but that every violation of human warfare shall be fearfully atoned for by any of the guilty tribe that may be captured.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 20.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—In the Senate, after the introduction of some petitions, Sherman called up the bill to repeal the cotton tax. A motion to postpone it until February was debated by several Senators, and the bill was finally laid over.

The Senate soon after went into executive session and then adjourned.

In the House, in transmitting the report of items in the Deficiency bill, on Wednesday, an important omission occurred in the items on reconstruction, amounting to $657,000. Other items amounting to $12,000,000 are for deficiencies in the Quartermaster's department in the army. As sent before, it appeared the entire sum was for deficiency in carrying out reconstruction.

Price offered a resolution declaring it to be the determination of Congress not to tolerate the violation of the rights of naturalized citizens abroad, and directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to give the subject immediate attention. Referred.

Julian called up his motion to reconsider the vote referring to the Committee on Public Lands, the bill declaring forfeited certain lands to aid in the construction of Southern railroads. He declared his desire to have these lands opened to settlement for the interest of the landless poor of the South. After debate on the subject, it was postponed to the 14th of January, when the House went into committee of the whole and considered the Senate amendments to the Deficiency bill and Congressional expenses. The House refused to concur in two amendments and the bill goes back to the Senate. Adjourned to the 6th of January.

News from Hayti.

HAVANA, Dec. 18.—Advices from Hayti confirm the murder of Montes. The revolt in Cairo had subsided. Salnave was engaged in the suppression of the revolt at Hayti. The Dominican army was marching toward the Haytian frontier.

Bank of New Orleans discontinued Business.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 19.—The Bank of New Orleans has discontinued business on account of the depression of trade.

Railroad Accident.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The boiler of a locomotive exploded in the Central Depot yesterday. It had just arrived with the passenger train and the platform was crowded with people. The force of the explosion tore a large hole in the top of the depot and totally demolished the refreshment stand, and did damage to the amount of $23,000. Nobody was injured except the engineer and fireman, both of whom were on the engine, but were but only slightly injured.

BUFFALO, Dec. 20.—It is pretty certain that the cause of the horrible railroad accident, was the breaking of a wheel on the rear car. Forty-four of the wounded have been recovered from the car, 23 in such a condition as to be recognized, and 21 horribly charred and unrecognizable.

Sale of the New York Sun.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Dana has bought the Sun for $175,000, thus [illegible] an interest in the Associated Press after the 1st of January. The office will be removed to Tammany Hall.

Southern News.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20.—There was another incendiary fire at Vicksburg last night. Loss, $57,000. It is the third fire within a week.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20.—A special order has been issued revoking Gen. Mower's order removing the Secretary of State and certain other officers. These removals are [illegible] by order of General Grant. Hancock's order says there is no evidence to sustain the allegations.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Latest advices from Mexico say [illegible] have forcibly deposed the Governor of [illegible]. There was great excitement at the capital on account of the total withdrawal of the British [illegible] and [illegible]. It was [illegible] that all the European legations would follow the English example. The [illegible] of Mexico are to leave British subjects under the [illegible] of Mexico herself.

An attempt had been made to [illegible] Gifforra, late Military Governor of Vera Cruz, while leaving the theater. Nearly all the political prisoners have been liberated.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

VIENNA, Dec. 18.—The Reichsrath has passed a bill apportioning quotas of taxes for the payment of the national debt among the provinces of Austria and Hungary.

[illegible], Dec. 19.—Four men have been arrested on suspicion of being [illegible] in the recent Fenian outrages. The [illegible] still continues, and the magistrates are swearing in special policemen, and the prison guards have been strengthened, and night troops [illegible] by [illegible].

The coroner's jury on the Clerkenwell explosion, rendered a verdict, charging Timothy Desmond and Jerry Allen with the murder, they having caused the explosion. The prisoners were arrested last night and remanded to jail.

At nine o'clock in the evening a great fire was raging at [illegible]. No particulars as yet.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The Senate is debating a bill for the reorganization of the army. Its adoption is urged on the ground that the measure is necessary on account of the German situation, and the revolutionary aspect of affairs in Italy.

It is reported that the Emperor has proposed to Belgium, Holland and Switzerland to join with France in a [illegible]. Belgium, it is said, has declined, on the ground that she has already concluded a commercial and [illegible] alliance with Prussia.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The Moniteur publishes later details of the battle on the Parana. It appears that [illegible], by [illegible] and inactivity, not only lost the results of a great victory, but was vanquished by the enemy, who turned and badly defeated him. The loss of the Paraguayans in the two engagements was very severe.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

[illegible], Dec 20—5 P. M.—The line is now working to Oroville. There has been no communication between that point and Sacramento since last Friday. The railroad between Oroville and Marysville has been badly damaged by the washing away of the embankments. The telegraph line repairers from Oroville have been within a mile and a half of Marysville. They report the Yuba river four feet higher than ever before known, and think the city of Marysville has been submerged. We are unable to say what amount of damage has been done, or when the line will be working through, as we cannot ascertain the amount of work necessary to be done to get [illegible] out of the flood.

FROM OWYHEE.

From the Avalanche of the 21st inst., we obtained the following details of news:

INDIAN FIGHT—NEWS FROM MRS. DENOILLE.

On the 12th inst., as a detachment of Major Hunt's scouts were reconnoitering the country west between Camp Lyon and the Owyhee river, they came upon a camp of Indians in a rocky canyon. There being only ten of the scouts—Dave Picket, Cal Morton and eight Indians—and as there appeared to be quite a large number of the Indians, it was deemed advisable to send to Camp Lyon, 20 miles distant, for reinforcements. Accordingly, a little after sunrise, two of the Indian scouts were dispatched to Camp Lyon, while Dave Picket and the remainder, eight in number, surrounded the enemy's camp, hoping to prevent their escape until assistance could arrive. But shortly afterward there came on one of those sudden snow-storms peculiar to our mountains at this season of the year, and the savages finding themselves discovered, began to escape under cover of the storm. The boys finding their game escaping, concluded not to wait for help, "pitched in" and saved what they could. A scene of the wildest description then ensued. The war-whoop of the Indians on both sides was mingled with the howling of the tempest, dark forms moved hither and thither amid the elemental strife. The scouts escaped unharmed; they took seven prisoners, squaws and children, and killed five bucks. A large quantity of furs and camp equipage was also taken, and three horses, one of which was taken from Sergeant Denoille at the time of his murder, the 14th of October. One of the captured squaws had on a pair of stockings and other articles of clothing supposed to have belonged to Mrs. Denoille, who was captured at the same time. It is thought that there were about twenty bucks in the band at the time the scouts first discovered them.

Major Hunt, with forty men, arrived at the scene of action just before sundown, but the affair was then at an end. Next morning all hands returned to Camp Lyon. An interpreter was procured, who learned from the prisoners the joyful tidings that Mrs. Denoille is yet alive, and her whereabouts, which we have not learned. Maj. Hunt started out Wednesday morning last with all his available force, fully equipped, and with guides and interpreters. There is scarcely a man in the company but would die in the attempt to rescue Mrs. Denoille from the hands of the savages, and the Major and his subordinates certainly deserve great credit for their untiring exertions made in the unfortunate woman's behalf. We hope ere long to hear the welcome news of her rescue.

SALE OF RISING STAR MINE.

We learn from good authority that the Rising Star mine, in Flint, has been sold to Wm. M. Lent, Geo. Hearst and others of San Francisco. They have also purchased Gen. McQueen's lease; so that now they own the entire mine—discovery claims and extensions—for which they paid $30 per foot, cash down. We understand that the purchasers have incorporated under the name of the "Rising Star Silver Mining Co." The parties having charge of the mine have suspended work thereon until the arrival of the agent, who is expected from San Francisco in about a week, when, in all probability, operations will be vigorously resumed. We understand it is the intention of the Company to erect a large mill as soon as possible, which, together with the expense of putting the mine in proper shape for working, will cost a large amount of money, but which will soon be repaid after they begin to make silver bricks.

FOSSIL REMAINS.

There is an extensive and interesting field for geological research on and in the vicinity of Sinker Creek, commencing at its junction with Sinker River and extending several miles up the creek. Mr. J. C. Holgate, of this place, who is quite a practical geologist, has recently made some interesting discoveries in that section, showing abundant evidence of its having been densely populated by animals that existed during the Cretaceous period of the Reptilian age. Among other things of interest that were shown us by Mr. H. were a number of bones, that from their size and appearance, unmistakably have belonged to the Mastodon giganteus long before man's appearance on earth. It is thought the entire skeleton to which these bones belong can be exhumed. In the collection we observed the head of a reptile, well preserved, and almost entire, somewhat resembling that of an alligator of the present day. It had fearful looking teeth and its jaws were firmly set, as if sealed by some great and sudden convulsion of nature. Marine shells and petrified wood also abound. Facts like these, if investigated by Agassiz, would form valuable contributions to science. As it is, they exhibit one among the many interesting features of Owyhee county.

We offer a suggestion for Beriah's consideration, viz: Whether the interests of the Democratic party do not demand that he should again assail and vilify the Methodist Church? There can be no doubt that Beriah's disposition to do this is good enough; but his employers have muzzled him. Hence a very fruitful source of supply for pungent Democratic editorials is cut off entirely.

SERVICES will be held at the Unitarian Chapel, corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets, on Sunday next at 10½ o'clock A. M. At 2 o'clock P. M. the Chapel will be dedicated. Rev. T. L. Elliott, Pastor.

COUGHS AND COLDS.—Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, &c., should try "Brown's Bronchial Troches," a simple remedy, which is in almost every case effectual. The Troches have been tested by time, and pronounced universally superior to all other articles for the same purpose.

RECREATION AND AMUSEMENT.—It is necessary that mortals should have some amusement, and since our city is not blessed with an elegant theatre, or some place of innocent amusement, it is the duty of every man to see that his acquaintances coming to our city should at least be pleased, and how can you please them better, than by sending them to KOHN & [illegible], No. 91 Front street, to buy one of those handsome suits they keep for sale.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

To be newly cured meats of Oregon or Washington Territory curing.

The Pork to be Mess or Prime Mess; the barrels and half-barrels to be full wooden hooped, and to have an iron hoop at each chime.

The Bacon to be clear, clear-ribbed or ribbed, thoroughly smoked and packed in gunnies without salt; three fourths of it to be covered with cotton muslin, and each gunny to contain about a hundred pounds net.

Bidders to state fully the kind of Pork or Bacon offered, dates of proposed deliveries, place and time contemplated for curing, weight of hogs, whether grain or corn fed; what salt used, and whatever may serve for contract specifications, and to distinguish comparative merits of bids.

Deliveries to be completed by June 1, 1868, and all net required; subject to inspection during preparation, and to final inspection on delivery. Prices to be stated in in figures and writing for the equivalent of United States coin at the time of payment, in the funds furnished by the United States for public disbursement.

PAYMENT TO BE MADE ON DELIVERY of lots not smaller than 20,000 pounds of meat.

Approved bonds will be required of the contractor and two sureties in the sum of fifty per cent. of the value of the contract.

Bids to give names, residence and address of the bidders and sureties, in full, and to be addressed to the undersigned, at this office, in sealed envelopes endorsed "Proposals for Furnishing Salt Meats." A copy of this advertisement must be attached to each bid.

Proposals will be received for ANY PART of the above.

Bidders are invited to be present at the opening of the bids.

The right is reserved of rejecting any or all bids.

The expense of this advertisement will be divided among the successful bidders pro rata.

GLORIOUS NEWS FOR THE MILLION

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING
OF
SANTA CLAUS' BUDGET!
McCORMICK'S
BOOK STORE!
WHERE MY HEADQUARTERS
HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
For the Past Six Years.
and where
I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL
DURING THE COMING HOLIDAYS!
MY BUDGET FOR THIS SEASON
COMPRISES
THE LARGEST STOCK!
with
THE HANDSOMEST GOODS!! and
The Cheapest Prices!
AND THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE
The Christmas and New Years'
HOLIDAYS!
I herewith issue my Annual PROCLAMATION!!!

I've come, my dear people, among you once more,
Keeping up the good custom established of yore
I bid you all welcome! I wish you good cheer
A right merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
You will find me this year, as you have heretofore,
At McCormick's, on Front street—the Franklin Book Store
Where I've opened my Budget—'twas filled to the brim
With every nice Toy that could talk, walk or swim.
I've Musical Work Boxes and Guitars for the fair
And Gifts for the Gents that are both rich and rare,
Whilst my Budget includes the nicest new Toys
Intended as Gifts to good Girls and Boys!
I've the Ark in which Grandfather Noah was kept
When all other creatures from the world were swept,
(For men in those days would in evil persist,
So the world was washed by an Oregon mist!)
I've Babies of Rubber, of wax and of leather,
(They were all made to order), and well put together;
I've Vases and Cups nicely gilded outside,
And little Cock Horses for Bobbies to ride;
I've Cannon and Pistols which cannot explode,
For the reason they hold neither wadding or lead.
I've steamboats that run—you just wind them in front
And they'll beat the Cascade or the Wilson G. Hunt.
I've a new Locomotive—it can never explode,
'Twas built for the use of Gaston's Railroad,
I've Engines that play—Set them down on the floor
And they'll throw greater streams than old '2' or new '4.'
I've Furniture, Fiddles, and French Fusileers,
Soldiers that look like S. B. Pioneers,
I've Swords made of tin—Guns and Pistols as well,
And the new kind of Drum that rings like a bell.
I've Masks of all sizes—I've Grace Hoops, gaiters,
And you'll find at McCORMICK'S a thousand Toys more,
On FRONT STREET the Store is—105,
Where TOYS are as plenty as bees in a hive;
Go there and buy them—this is my request,
His Prices are Low and his Stock is the Best.

(L. S.) Given at my Palace in Wonderland, this 30th day of the eleventh month, being the first year of the reign of George the Third in Webfoot.

Roads.—A correspondent sends us some good practical suggestions regarding the importance of wagon roads from Portland into the country. Referring to the fact that the public mind is just now preoccupied with railroad ideas, the writer expresses the fear that all suggestions in regard to [illegible] road interests may not be heeded or even read. Notwithstanding his fears are perhaps well based, we give his suggestions to our readers: While everybody ought to be ready to hail with joy the advent of a live Yankee, snorting railroad through the rich agricultural districts of the Willamette valley, bringing [illegible] treasures therefrom to Portland, the great [illegible] depot of the State, in our zeal for the great enterprise, we should not ignore the great importance of devising some practical plans for good substantial [illegible] roads, one or more, from Portland into the [illegible]. The old Canyon road, which is now said to be [illegible], has had expended upon it within the last ten or twelve years, from one hundred to fifteen hundred dollars per year. This is exclusive of $25,000 or $30,000 expended prior to that time. Six weeks ago there were from 80 to 200 teams passing over this road daily. In much the same condition are several other roads each [illegible] to be the road, best grade, lowest, etc. In view of these facts, and the other essential fact that Portland pays annually from $6,000 to $10,000 taxes, to be expended on the various public highways [illegible] from the city to the country, would it not be wise to appoint a competent [illegible] to survey the several different routes, noting all the [illegible] up and down the mountains, the [illegible] of the [illegible], &c., and [illegible] the same to a select committee whose duty it shall be to adopt one or more of the best grades, lowest summit and other advantages, all considered regardless of individual or local interests, and then to expend the public money [illegible]. Adopt a course of this kind and it may be that [illegible] roads that now have large sums of the peoples' [illegible] on them, may be left out in the cold or kept up at the expense of individual enterprise, as it [illegible]. Hoping to hear from some one more competent to do this important subject justice, I submit to the [illegible].

The [illegible] of an Invalid Soldier.—There are perhaps very few who have not seen some of the curious, [illegible] trinkets whittled from soup [illegible] rebel prison-pens [illegible]. The soldier with nothing to [illegible] within brief limits, his spirit chafing, and [illegible] with the [illegible] of only thinking, thinking, from one day's end to the other, naturally [illegible] to this [illegible] relief from his never [illegible]. If [illegible] it saved him [illegible] from the danger of [illegible]. [illegible] little trinkets are [illegible], of a trivial character, but oftentimes of a [illegible] and always of an active mind which must work or die. [illegible] without a sort of [illegible] with the [illegible], and [illegible] of the weary [illegible] and days he whiled away in the [illegible]. We have in our [illegible] a curiously [illegible] rebel hospital, [illegible] to be willow, was [illegible] out with a small knife, and being an [illegible] of that kind of work [illegible] of it. The devices and figures are all in high [illegible]. The head [illegible] of a hand [illegible] of carrying a [illegible]. The [illegible] the body of the chest, are [illegible] with [illegible], the bible open at the Lords Prayer, [illegible], sword, [illegible] box, [illegible] and [illegible] all [illegible], and a saw. [illegible] with the point of a [illegible], as follows: [illegible] I. O. O. F. The open bible [illegible] the Lord's Prayer in [illegible] with indelible ink. At present, the cane is the property of J. O. [illegible], of this city, but of his [illegible].

[illegible] Quincy A. [illegible] from [illegible] City, [illegible] place he had been [illegible] by the [illegible], J. H. [illegible] City [illegible] months ago, and it was [illegible] with the Government [illegible] for [illegible] into the matter, [illegible] of $1,3[illegible] 20 on [illegible] orders. [illegible] of the [illegible] arrival of Mr. [illegible], Mr. E. [illegible] in temporary [illegible] as [illegible] of [illegible] upon shortfall [illegible] of the amount of [illegible] by suit. The [illegible] of the [illegible] some of the above facts, adding [illegible] by those who had the best means of knowing [illegible] Mr. [illegible] is guilty [illegible] in it. He [illegible], who have been his [illegible] by subjecting them to the [illegible] of [illegible] a public [illegible], [illegible] of the [illegible] of settling [illegible]. He is said to be now in [illegible]. It is [illegible] that he has reported [illegible] said he was about to come [illegible] and [illegible] up the whole matter, but he don't [illegible] that he had better come [illegible].

[illegible] Mails from W[illegible]'s Bar[illegible].—[illegible] from the [illegible] Journal, of [illegible] from W[illegible], in which it was [illegible] that the [illegible] Maxwell mill had [illegible] over $8,000 from [illegible] of rock [illegible] out of the [illegible] Scott [illegible]. [illegible] we saw at the First National Bank [illegible] two of the bars, the result of this first run, [illegible]. [illegible] the presence of [illegible], but not having been [illegible], the relative [illegible] gold and silver, cannot be stated. It is [illegible] of metals that the mass is [illegible] less than $12 per [illegible]. At the rate the rock [illegible] been worth $12 per [illegible] of [illegible] have got a big thing. The [illegible] mill will start on the 1st of January, as Mr. Harley [illegible] a steam mill, it will be able to run all the [illegible] of [illegible] weather. Mr. Stair, [illegible] of the [illegible], has private letters from [illegible] express the [illegible] at [illegible] at that [illegible].

[illegible].—The steamship Fideliter was libelled [illegible] for lay on [illegible] of A. C. Gibbs, acting U. S. [illegible] Attorney, alleging that [illegible] a sham sale of the [illegible] at [illegible] and that subsequently [illegible] under color of such sale a registry of the [illegible] as an American vessel, [illegible] of the U. S. [illegible]. The complaint asks for the forfeiture [illegible] of the [illegible] for this [illegible] laws.

[illegible] for San Francisco.—The steamship Montana, [illegible], sailed from this port for San Francisco yesterday morning, with the following list of [illegible]: [illegible], N Brown, J P Woodworth and wife, W Perrine, Mrs S [illegible], J N Victor, S Alexander, [illegible] Nathan, [illegible], Geo A[illegible], Walter Jackson, Jas Guthrie, R Powell, Mrs Rankin and 3 children, P Bennett, C F W[illegible], M H[illegible], W Ayers, M W[illegible], Col. West (W F & Co's [illegible]), [illegible], Purser, and 25 others.

[illegible].—Yesterday, Judge [illegible] a petition from F. Ba[illegible], for a writ of [illegible] at case of J. R. Mayerson [illegible] the clerk of [illegible] on the judgment [illegible] prejudice to the [illegible] be re[illegible].

[illegible].—The Boise Statesman of the 21st says: "This body has been duly organized this week at Idaho City, and the following officers [illegible]: Geo. H. Coe, Most W. G. M.; G. W. Paul, [illegible] W. [illegible] G. M.; A. Haas, Senior Grand Warden; [illegible], Junior Grand Warden. [illegible] of the Grand Lodge of Oregon was [illegible], and Oro fino Lodge No. 4 chartered by the new [illegible]."

New [illegible].—We hear that a new daily [illegible] is to be started in this city on or about January 24, to be called "The Portland Evening Bulletin"—J. [illegible], publisher. The [illegible] is not yet published, and we cannot, therefore, say anything of what the [illegible] may be.

Odd Fellows' Election.—At a meeting last night of [illegible] Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected: C. O. Clark, N. G.; W. W. Spalding, V. G.; J. [illegible], R. S.; C. A. Burkhardt, Treasurer; W. [illegible], E. L. Goodrich, F. Harbaugh, Trustees.

Flour for New York.—[illegible], Savier & Co. shipped [illegible] day, by the steamer M[illegible], 782 gunnies Imperial flour, each gunny containing 3 quarter sacks. The shipment is consigned to "S. B., N. Y." They intend to ship a much larger amount by the next steamer.

For Victoria.—The steamship Fideliter, Erskine Commander, is advertised to sail for Victoria at 4 P. M. today. The vessel's machinery has been undergoing repairs for some time, at the Willamette Iron Works, and is said to be now in tip-top trim.

The Man D[illegible] at Vancouver.—Mr. Tromp informs us that it is the [illegible] at Vancouver, that the man drowned off the dock last Tuesday night was an old man [illegible], a farm laborer whose [illegible].

A[illegible] Gale at Victoria.—A telegram from Victoria yesterday, says: "The gale last Monday night was nearly as severe as that of the previous week. The barometer fell as low as 28. 85."

Produce.—Arrived per steamer Alert, from Oregon City yesterday, 130 sks feed, 355 bags wheat, 1,776 qr. sks. flour, 1 bale woolen goods, 10 hf. bbls. dried apples, 4 bxs. [illegible].

Treasure Shipment.—By the steamer M[illegible], which sailed yesterday for San Francisco, Wells, Fargo & Co shipped $60,000, the only treasure sent.

Special Meeting of the Council.—A special meeting of the City Council is called for Tuesday night, to close up the business of 1867.

Raffle at the Gem Saloon.—Five splendid prizes will be raffled for this evening at 8 o'clock. Charley keeps one of the [illegible] and most attractive [illegible] in the city, which, with the additional attraction of a [illegible], will doubtless draw a full house this evening at "The Gem."

A[illegible] This Day.—Mr. A. B. Richardson will address his [illegible] to-day, as usual, from the old stand, corner of Front and Oak streets on the [illegible] important topics of the day. Sale to commence at 10 A. M.

NEWS FROM BOISE.

The Democrat of the 21st gives the following:

We noticed in our last issue that a party of Indians had driven off some fifteen or twenty head of cattle from the valley on last Sunday night. We understand that they were overtaken shortly after and two, all that were seen, of the adventurous devils lost the much prized tassel that generally adorns the extreme apex of the Lo family's cranium. The stock were all recovered. On hearing of this, Gen. Elliott, commanding the post Fort Boise, promptly dispatched a squad of soldiers to thoroughly scout the lower portion of the valley in search of any redskins that may be lurking in that vicinity. We have heard nothing of the success of the expedition.

A farmer's letter from the valley, which came to hand too late for publication, states that one of the bucks whose moccasins were sunned in the little fight three or four days ago, had a circle and the figures "1845," branded a posteriori. This is not the biblical mark of the first murderer, although that fellow's progenitors have undoubtedly been playing the part of Cain for some years past, especially in Idaho.

We hear new diggings have been discovered on Pine creek, Oregon, and that the miners on Willow creek are leaving that camp for the new discovery. We have not learned the exact locality of Pine creek, but understand that it is about one hundred and twenty-five miles from the Willow creek mines.

The Statesman of the 21st contains the annexed items:

Mr. B. Strickland writes us from Forty-Nine Ranch, December 15th, that the Indians made a raid on the stake stock at that station last Saturday night, and drove off sixteen horses belonging to Mr. Hailey. From indications it is thought they had been watching two or three days for the opportunity. They crossed Snake river six miles above Washoe ferry and went on their way rejoicing.

Mr. J. S. Ramey, of Warrens', and John Welch were robbed by a party of four highwaymen last Sunday afternoon, about twenty-five miles beyond Malad Station. They were coming from Salmon City down to Boise, with riding animals and a pack each. Mr. Ramey had $3,200 in greenbacks and about $500 in dust. Mr. Welch had about $300 in dust. The men suspecting they were being watched and followed traveled almost day and night and camped off the road to avoid observation. Late in the afternoon Sunday, they rode close upon four men, ambushed in the grass and willows, with shot guns levelled at them. The brigands appeared to know Ramey and Welch, and about what amount of money they had with them. They ordered the men to dismount, and two stood guard while the other two ransacked the packs and helped themselves to the money and provisions. While this was going on, Welch complained that "this was too bad," and remarked that "he would meet some of them again, and he would know them too," whereupon one of the guards shot him through the head. After taking the money and arms and all the provisions but about three pounds of flour, the ringleader handed Mr. Ramey the halters of his horses and said to him "Get, and d—n you, don't you look back, nor be seen on this road again." Mr. Ramey rode to Malad Station and got help to go back and bury the body of Mr. Welch the next day. He arrived here Thursday afternoon, stripped of the last [illegible] by the infernal "road agents." One of them was a man considerably over six feet high and they were all veiled with crape. They were armed with two doubled barrelled shot guns, a Henry and a Spencer rifle. Mr. Ramey is under sheriff of Idaho county, and was on his way to Florence, the county seat.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

Just Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain settling in upon your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of your disease, which is fast running into Consumption. Now, before it is too late, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, which will cure the disease, and all will be well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

HOSTETTER'S ### CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the ### STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers, Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, Dec. 27, 1867.

The continued stormy weather between here and Sacramento has almost entirely prevented the reception of news by telegraph, and consequently we have quotations of the money market only one day later than by the San Francisco papers received by the steamer Montana. Private telegrams quote Gold at 1 34 at New York, on the 19th, and Sterling at 1 10. On the same day at San Francisco, Legal Tenders were quiet at 74½c buying, and 75c selling.

We find but little to remark in regard to the general state of the markets, beyond the fact that, as usual during the winter season trade is very generally quiet. There is no line of goods which exhibits any degree of buoyancy though the jobbing merchants are receiving a few small orders daily for assortments. What trade there is, is mostly with the interior Willamette valley, and is confined altogether to staple goods.

Produce continues very quiet and quotations are but nominal. The arrivals from the upper Willamette have been rather limited for the past two weeks in consequence of the storms and interruptions to navigation. The Montana, which sails at 10 C M. to-day, takes a full freight from the stores on hand. Flour and Wheat remain at the figures quoted last week, but there is nothing doing in either to call for special remark. The last telegraphic dispatch from San Francisco report the market as quiet, with lower figures. Oregon extra brands of Flour were jobbing at $7 25@7 50, mostly at the inside figure. Oregon Wheat was selling at $2 50 ℔ 100 lbs. Since July 1st, Oregon has sent to San Francisco Wheat and Flour as follows:

| | Wheat, sks | Flour qr. sks |
|---|---|---|
| July | 400 | 20,339 |
| August | 10 | 21,441 |
| September | 47 | 16,332 |
| October | 6,604 | 32,230 |
| November | 11,683 | 30,683 |
| December (to the 20th) | 12,208 | 1,060 |
| Total | 30,957 | 127,015 |

The [illegible] for December, including the shipments to arrive at San Francisco between the 20th of December and the 1st of January, will make the best exhibit for Oregon ever made in one month. The freights of the Occident, Oriflamme and Montana are to be added as follows:

| | Wheat sks | Flour qr sks |
|---|---|---|
| Occident | 4,525 | 4,500 |
| Oriflamme | 524 | 10,000 |
| Montana | 200 | 13,000 |
| Totals | 5,249 | 27,500 |

Bacon is lower, Hams have dropped to 15@17c, and Sides and Shoulders though nominally as last week are very dull. There will be a further decline probably before our next report. The quotations of Sides are nearly up to the [illegible] price of San Francisco, and Hams are higher than prices obtained for the last shipments.

We have several times announced declines in Cotton and other staple goods which this coast buys in Eastern [illegible] the [illegible] with them [illegible] there, and the influence that the Eastern markets have upon our trade, the [illegible] call that [illegible] which we find in [illegible] columns of the S. F. Bulletin of a recent date, will be of interest:

Accounts from the Atlantic States all agree that there [illegible] tending to stagnation in nearly all [illegible]. The book trade is flat, [illegible] which turn out staple articles [illegible] holidays. There is a general [illegible] the [illegible] is great and, in some [illegible] strong, they have [illegible] in the general slide. The following [illegible] of prices for two years [illegible]

[illegible] SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows.

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the diversity of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a [illegible] by [illegible] to them a remedy [illegible] medical science and [illegible] his hope [illegible]

He [illegible] that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied in old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up [illegible] as [illegible] relieved.

[illegible] afflicted [illegible] way to give it a trial, and [illegible] that he instructs all his agents to [illegible] THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

[illegible] cases of GRANULATED LIDS [illegible] &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, [illegible] and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, [illegible] fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad [illegible] for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. H WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg

PROSPECTUS
THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT!

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURCHASED the "UNION BOOK & JOB PRINTING OFFICE," of T. F. McElroy, propose to issue a Weekly Newspaper at Olympia, W. T., on or about the 1st of December next, to be called THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT.

The paper will be devoted to the Agricultural, Mechanical, Commercial, Mineral, Moral and Political interests of the whole Territory.

In Politics we shall uphold and sustain the Union Principles of the Nation, at the same time reserving the right to be INDEPENDENT on all subjects, that we may be better able to discuss all matters in their true light, and give credit wherever it is due.

We trust our friends will circulate this prospectus generally and assist us in getting a good list of Subscribers, Advertisements, or Job Work. We also invite correspondence from all sections of the Territory.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT will be issued every Saturday, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Hoping to receive a share of public favor, we unfurl our banner to the breeze.

DR BARLOW J SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc, Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost incredible extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicine of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, [illegible] the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 952

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 952 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

REDINGTON & CO'S
ESSENCE OF ## JAMAICA GINGER.

This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at REDINGTON & CO., Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco.
